THE FALL OF NAPOLEON.

"Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best in the world, Charley."

"And the cheapest, too, Charles. How can you afford to take such a good one?"

"Why, that question does not occur but a month after one has to go to an apothecary for Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"What's it, Frank? Hood's Sarsaparilla, positive to cure?"

For a good spring medicine we confidently recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla. By its use the blood is purified, revitalized, and enriched, the whole body is relieved of impurities and strength and vigor are given. This is proven by thousands of unsolicited testimonials, and the fairness and honor of the manufacturers are unquestioned.

"Yes, we have never tried Hood's Sarsaparilla, but we have heard so much about it that we concluded to do so. We are glad we did, for it has done us both a great deal of good, and we feel sure it is the best blood medicine in the world."

"For a run-down spring medicine my wife and I both took two bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla. We took both in the spring. It did us a great deal of good and we feel confident that we escaped many cases of sickness. It is worth a great deal to have a medicine at hand that will do what Hood's Sarsaparilla does when needed."

"The first year I was sick every spring, but last year began in February to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. I used two bottles and have not been sick one day since. I have recommended it to many friends, all of whom speak highly of it. This year we shall not be without it, and I think every family should have on hand the three Hood's Sarsaparilla sarsaparilla." J. W. Brown, Milton, Mass.

"I am very glad now to give testimony. I thought I would try Hood's Sarsaparilla and I found it the best medicine I ever took. I am recommending it to everybody." Mrs. Grace A. Cook, Fitchburg, Mass.

100 Doses One Dollar

"We have this Dollar" is not a mere boastful statement, but is original with and true only of Hood's Sarsaparilla, which of the very best curative medicines ever taken, is peculiar to itself. Power to make pure and enrich the blood, create appetite, overcome that tired feeling, and build up the system, is unequaled by any other medicine. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a highly concentrated extract of the best vegetable alteratives and blood purifiers known, and is the only sarsaparilla in which are combined the full medicinal properties of the roots, herbs, barks, and fruits from which it is prepared. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only sarsaparilla of which can truthfully be said, "100 Doses One Dollar."

NOT ONE YEAR
ESTABLISHED, AND

is compelled, in consequence of its yearly increasing business, to add still another store to its already mammoth quarters, making five large store-rooms for the display of its immense stock! Such marvelous success is the true criterion of what the people think of THE HUB.

Having secured the lease of the hardware store, 150 State-st., adjoining our Juvenile Department, we shall merge the two into a mammoth for the display of Boys' and Children's Clothing, making ours the Largest and Handsomest Exclusive Juvenile Department in Chicago.

Alterations necessary to complete these improvements positively compel us to have more room—hence we inaugurate this week a GRAND ALTERATION CLEARANCE SALE, wherein PRICES will be SO MUCH REDUCED that we are confidently assured you that from twenty-five to fifty per cent will be taken off the prices of our Full-Weight Suits and Overcoats to induce ready disposal of the goods.

GUARD AROUND THE IMPERIAL PALACE AT BERLIN.

The Body of the Late Emperor Frederick Placed Temporarily in the Mausoleum at Potsdam—Germany's Sick Ruler Leaves the Room for the First Time—Ambassador Bellamy Storer Presents His Credentials to the Emperor—The Empress Feeling Almost Like Her Old Self.

SPECIAL CABLE DISPATCH TO THE TRIBUNE.

COPYRIGHT, 1900, BY THE TRIBUNE ASSOCIATION.

BERLIN, March 10.—A sensation caused by the surrounding the palace where the dead Emperor's body is awaiting the journey to the tomb. There is nothing for many to see at the moment, but to the many hearts there exists a desire to be remembered to the poor the house where the object of their affection stands in the long rest, and to gain sight the last resort to the many for an object to show his sorrow for at the call of a funeral sentence. Public ing could surpass the constant moving of this vast throng from dusk until a complete arrest. The city is magnificently and even arrayed in the immemorial magnificence of the Imperial Palace. Shopping and schools are closed, and places of business and so, and there are few vehicles in the streets except the hearses of undertakers. Nearly every house keeper has a portrait of the late Emperor given friends to think. The only disturbance of the universal sobriety is the incessant noise of carriages. People appear to wear every few paces about the city, the guard are there and the business of there are selling facsimiles of them.

The body of the Emperor was embalmed Wednesday and Thursday and was placed in the coffin at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon in the presence of the Empress, the Princesses of the house, the Emperor, Prince Henry and Prince Adalbert, Prince Frederick Leopold, Prince Frederick Charles of Hesse, Prince Frederick William, Prince Henry of Hesse, Prince Alexander of Hesse, Prince Frederick Charles of Prussia, and several members of the household. Shortly after the coffin was placed in the mausoleum at Potsdam, where it will remain until the funeral. The mausoleum is a very little changed in the appearance since the days when it was the favorite resort of the late Emperor. The coffin, with the exception of the wreaths, is covered with a magnificent pall of white velvet, richly embroidered with gold. The Emperor's uniform cap and sword are placed on the coffin.

The Empress Frederick has been greatly comforted by the sympathetic messages received from all parts of the world, and has been much touched by the many tributes of respect and affection which have been paid to the memory of her husband. The Empress has been much pleased with the reception given to Ambassador Bellamy Storer, who presented his credentials to the Emperor on Thursday. The Ambassador was received with the usual ceremonies, and was accompanied by Count von Bernstorff, the German Ambassador to the United States, and by Count von Eulenburg, Minister of the Interior. The Ambassador delivered a short address, to which the Emperor replied in a few words. The Ambassador was then presented to the Empress, and had a long conversation with her Majesty. The Empress was much pleased with the reception given to Ambassador

The Problem of the Massachusetts Spiritualistic Seance. Dr. Joseph Rodes of Cincinnati Expresses His Views Based on Many Privileges. Mediums, Spirit Photographs, and Other Details Make Up a Business for the Rabbi That Is to Him—

CINCINNATI, Ohio, March 7.—[Special Correspondence.]—It is a good while since I gave any attention to the Spiritualistic fakes, and in the entire excitement in the east over certain phases of spiritualism. But I got so much a longer time than I parted upon me. I have been inquiring my acquaintances. I have found at least one who believes thoroughly in Spiritualism. Rabbi Joseph Rodes of this city. The Hebrew got out of it. Considering the phases that I already had seen of "genuine" dealing of the Big Four, let me say, however, that I have met a Spiritualist who seems honest a man.

THE PRESIDENTIAL RACE GOES TWO WEEKS IN THREE DAYS.

The Grand Opera Season Ends—Two Plays and Numerous Concerts Are Announced—Bernhardt in Chicago—Actors in Search of Parts—Gossip of the Stage—Notes.

The Grand Opera Season has probably terminated in Chicago forever. The effective part of yesterday's performance of "Lohengrin" by the Metropolitan Opera company was the singing of Miss Nordica and Mr. Saleza. The former sang with her usual splendid voice and the latter with a tenderness and sympathy which were unusual. Mr. Saleza's tones—like those of Miss Nordica—are naturally beautiful, and he has the rare faculty of using them with taste and discretion. Mr. Saleza's singing of the "Grail" narrative was the best thing he has done in Chicago, and Miss Nordica's singing of the "Elsa" music was the best she has done here. Her voice, which has been heard to better advantage in other roles, was in excellent condition, and she sang with a fervor and dramatic power which were unusual. Mr. Van Dyck's Lohengrin was not up to the standard of his Tannhäuser and Walther, and Mr. Bispham's Telramund was not equal to his Wolfram. Mme. Schumann-Heink's Ortrud was a fine piece of singing, but it was not dramatic. Mme. Schumann-Heink is a singer of great power and beauty, but she is not a dramatic artist. She has the temperament of a singer, but not that of an actress. Her
